Aguas Bonaerenses SA (ABSA) is one of the largest operators of water and sewage in Argentina. Its concession area includes 79 localities in the Province of Buenos Aires. With 15 years of experience, ABSA guarantees and improves the provision of the potable water and wastewater services in most areas of the province. At the present moment, the company provides these essential services to almost 2 million people, constantly renewing the commitment with the community, optimizing the service and promoting its responsible use.
