

Stand 50

AquaFlanders

AquaFlanders is the voice of all Flemish companies that are responsible for drinking water and sewer management. We promote the common interests of our members to the local, regional, federal and European government and stakeholders and support them with a package of services. AquaFlanders encourages a sustainable management and use of water.