

Stand 278-A

Japan Water Works Association

Japan Water Works Association (JWWA) was established on May 12th, 1932 with the aim of introducing water supply facilities and developing water supply technologies in Japan.

JWWA's main activities include research and study of water supply management, technologies and water quality. Those activities are quite essential for people's daily life.