

Stand 80

SCALGO

SCALGO

SCALGO has developed an online platform SCALGO Live for working intuitively and quickly with flood risk screening on detailed elevation models. The platform is used by thousands of engineers, city planners and landscape architects to understand surface water flow and flood risk and to investigate mitigation strategies. The platform is based on cutting-edge algorithm technology developed during decades of fundamental research in algorithms at leading academic institutions in Europe and the US.